REPORTS

President's Report – Jill Littlewood

How nice it is has been to be back dancing now that the new dancing year is underway.

Hogmanay in Cambridge was a great success, thanks to Jane McIlroy and friends.

Lochiel's twilight dancing in the Hamilton Gardens was hindered by unsettled weather but went ahead and those there had a great time, even if it was soggy at times.

Both events were very relaxed and enjoyable.

The Teachers Day at Hinuera on Saturday 25 March was attended by just 8 of us, luckily a set of dancers. If you were unable to attend, you missed a treat. Each teacher had devised a new dance for beginners with basic formations which we danced together, sometimes testing even our memory skills and anticipation! These dances will add to the teachers' repertoire of dances for new dancers and may become favourites in time. Thanks must go to all the teachers who attended and to Heather Johnston for the organisation of the day.

Last night a number of Hamilton and Cambridge dancers danced at the Cambridge Town Hall for the Cambridge Can Dance night of the Cambridge Autumn Festival. We danced 3 dances and then invited the audience up. They rushed up and we had 5 sets on the floor. What a great response and a fabulous opportunity to showcase SCD and social dancing for enjoyment generally. All the other dancers were dancing to perform though I'm sure that they were enjoying themselves as well. Thanks Antanas Procuta for organising this.

We have the Te Awamutu Dance to look forward to on the 22 April and the Region Ball on the 6th May.

You may remember that I was to hand over the President's reins to Jeanette Lauder when Chris and I headed off for our UK trip in July this year. For personal reasons we are now having to bring the trip forward and so I will hand over the reins after this meeting. Thanks so much to Jeanette for accepting the challenge. As we leave on 3 May, I will miss the Region RSCDS Centenary Ball on the 6 May and King's Birthday Weekend School but I am sure that these are in good hands and that you will all have a wonderful time at both events. I will certainly be thinking of you. The plus for me is that we will be in London for the Coronation pageantry. I'd like to thank the committee members for all their support. You are an easy and dedicated team to work with!

King's Birthday Weekend Report April 2023

The Lochiel KB Weekend Committee has worked hard to get everything in place for you all and are now waiting for the registrations to flow in. We have people from Australia and Auckland already and a handful from our Region. Please encourage your club members to register soon. Even an email signalling an intention to come would be useful for planning.

With great teachers, Jeanette Watson and Ruth Budden and a wonderful band in Wild Heather it is sure to be a fantastic weekend of fun and dancing

EDUCATION & TRAINING – Heather Johnston

Teachers' Workshop Saturday 25 March 2023

Attendees were Jane McIlroy, Jean Smithson, Jeanette Lauder, Antanas Procuta, Lesley Gousmett, Jill Littlewood (Region President), Robyn Howes (Region Treasurer) and myself.

There were 11 apologies – Andrew Patterson, Jan Pyke, Genny Hall, Agnes Algra, Wayne McConnel, Lynne Hudson, Margaret Green, Helen Smythe, Glenna James, Ruary Laidlaw and Glenda Hammond. The Workshop was held at the Hinuera Hall, and the focus this year was on two aspects of teaching Beginners. Teachers had been asked to complete a little Homework exercise in advance of the Workshop.

For Challenge 1:-

Teachers were asked to devise a 4x32 bar dance of any genre, remembering that their beginners had not learned progression for a 3 couple dance in a 4 couple set, nor for that matter, a 2 couple dance in a 3 couple set. Pas de Basque setting had not been introduced either so there was to be no setting in Reel or Jig time.

They were asked to choose a basic formation from a certain section of the RSCDS Level 1 list of formations and use that as the basis for their dance. They could assume that other formations in the list had been taught prior and these could be used in their dance.

They were to name their dance, list 3 teaching points for their chosen formation and teach any linkages, plus choose suitable music for the dance.

Some very interesting little dances were put forward, and each was lovely to dance. What made some of the dances even more interesting was the little “story” behind the title, the story adding interest and purpose. The chosen music for each dance was most appropriate and that too added to the enjoyment of each dance. I know those teachers who were present will value having these extra dances to “ram home” certain formations. It was just a pity that we didn't have more teachers in attendance to share the experience.

For Challenge 2:-

Teachers were asked to choose a relatively simple 8x32 bar dance from an RSCDS book preferably, and teach “progression” for a 3 couple dance in a 4 couple set.

They were asked

- How do you go about getting this across to your dancers?
- What aids do you use, if any?

They were also asked to be prepared to demonstrate their method for teaching the progression. It was soon evident that I had not made my instruction clear and the “progression” had been misinterpreted. However, it made for some interesting discussion as did the question of sourcing 2 couple dances (for a 3 couple set). Some of our clubs are struggling with numbers sadly so 2 couple dances are the norm. Some nights, 5 people dances even, and yes there are some 5 people dances around.

Once again attendance was disappointing. I know that other things sometimes get in the way and apologies are unavoidable, but the date for the Workshop was actually set some time ago, last November in fact. However, those in attendance (all except 1 who had to leave straight away) enjoyed the debrief and the camaraderie sitting in the sunshine for lunch down at the Te Poi store/dairy, NOT (please note) the Te Poi pub. The latter seemed to be the venue of choice for about 50 bikies! We lost count as they roared past! Conversation was also lost for a bit!

Heather Johnston/Jean Smithson

Wayne McConnel – Thanked Heather Johnston for the work involved in preparing and conducting the Teachers' Workshop on 25 March.

COMMUNICATION & PUBLICITY – Agnes Algra

This is a huge thank you to all the WaiBop committee members, club secretaries and dancers who submitted articles for the WaiBop News over the last few weeks. We really appreciate your input. Thanks also to Shelley McConnell for keeping us all up to do on what's happening around our region on facebook and Andy Patterson for all his work with the Wai/Bop website.

On my behalf a huge thank you to Ruary for getting the word out to all clubs with reminders of when the newsletters is due out and what the deadline is and also to Jill for her input too and both for their encouragement and help along the way.

Agnes Algra/Robyn Howes

YOUTH – Jeanette Lauder

With one Junior Associate Member and no Young Adult members registered in the Region over the last year we have a clear challenge in attracting young people to dancing.

These numbers do not mean there have not been efforts to encourage and support young people into Dancing Scottish. However, many factors, including the covid pandemic, have led to our current situation. The NZ Branch JAM Committee sees "rebuilding and increasing the number of JAMs" as their biggest priority and are looking for the assistance of all clubs to achieve this.

Acknowledgement is given to those groups which are developing ideas of how they might do this. Let's hope these ideas bring positive results.

As part of centennial celebrations of the forming of the Society, the New Zealand Branch is planning a Centennial Ball on 8th July for Senior JAMs and Youth. This will be held in Wellington, with live music, and a programme specifically designed for dancers aged from 13 to 35 years. Dancers outside this age group will be most welcome and are given a heads up that the dances will be lively. Please promote this event to those who you think might be interested, including ex-JAMs from your club.

Jeanette Lauder/Lynne Hudson

GENERAL BUSINESS

2023 BALL

MOVED THAT those attending the 2023 (RSCDS) Centenary Ball be at Matangai Hall on 6 May, be charged $10 per head plus a plate of food for Ball Dancers, and Spectators be charged $5. (Spectators contribute a plate of food if they wish).

Robyn Howes/Glenna James

Robyn Howes suggested she look into the possibility of Ball attendees paying on-line. Refunds of online payments would be available if unable to attend."

AGREED THAT formal evening dress would be expected of attendees for this year's RSCDS Centenary Ball.

Jane McIlroy, Wayne McConnel and Heather Johnston had agreed to brief Ball dances.

Heather Johnston had organised the programme.

AGREED THAT Raffles would not be sold at this year's Ball.

It was noted that the date of WaiBoP 2023 Ball (should read 6 May) and Te Awamutu Ball (should read 22 April) had not been corrected in NZScottish Dancer.

King's Birthday Weekend 2023 – Jill Littlewood reported that Lochiel Club planning was well in place.

JAM's Sponsorship – available if required.

King's Birthday Weekend 2024 – TBA – Lochiel Club only too happy to share information from 2023 experience.

King's Birthday Weekend -25 – Cambridge

Andy Patterson suggested looking into the possibility of hiring the same halls from one year to the other. After some discussion, it was decided, through experience with changes of personnel/management of organisations, it was perhaps a better arrangement to hire halls on a yearly basis.

The matter of applying for funding was suggested. Those present who had previously been involved in applying for funding, informed the meeting that this can become a burden with so many obstacles that can arise.

Robyn Howes advised that if a current application for funding is successful, she will share that model with Clubs for future applications for funding.

Region Day Schools – None booked at this point. Maybe something in August/September – contemplating Elementary Beginners – further details to be advised as and when available.

Region Scholarships – Jeanette Lauder advised that information re Scholarships was available on the RSCDS website. It was noted that Scholarships have a cost and Club funds could deplete - maybe a subsidy could be applied. Another idea was for Club funds to be directed towards Day Schools so more dancers could benefit.

Publicity material – Jill Littlewood displayed advertising flyers and bank cards info, asking what numbers were required for future distribution. Antanus Procuta would be organising the printing of new flyers and bank cards. Stickers could be placed on flyers and bank cards, showing individual Club contact details.

Suggested that each Club member be given two flyers to give to friends/family.

Douglas McCartney asked if we could ask school teachers if they are interested in teaching Scottish Country Dancing

Linda Carter – on a personal note – she would like a loan of any Scottish Dancing CDs that anyone might like to share, for Linda to use in her CD player. Please contact Linda - 0212598770

Agnes Algra – Request (OK) for borrowing Region cups for Te Awamutu dance on 22 April and agreed with the idea of using the Region speaker system. Bill Jacob assisting Te Awamutu with music.

Jean Smithson – asked how we could encourage new members. Andrew Patterson explained that Rotorua had used a Facebook 16+ group - $10 for four weeks – this brought in nine new members. Information sheets had been prepared for new members – one related just to Scottish Country Dancing in general; another information sheet related to the Rotorua Club in particular.

A mixture of ages is important – families with different generations attending together - so no-one feels embarrassed walking into a class on their own - they just want to run away!.

Show that Scottish Country Dancing is socially enjoyable.

A story of each dance helps.

Disappointment was expressed that at the Cambridge international dance the previous night, nothing was mentioned about classes/dances of any of the organisations represented.

Best wishes to John Rowlandson who is undertaking, with 17 others on 18 April, a parachute jump to raise funds for St John.

Best wishes and to Jill Littlewood for her forthcoming overseas trip with husband Chris.

Robyn Howes thanked Jill Littlewood for all the work she had undertaken up until the present time and wished her a very happy trip away with husband Chris.

OBITUARIES – Nil
